Public Improvements in Dixon; The Record of Fires; Report of Public Library.

THE WORK OF THE COUNTY OFFICERS

Number of Marriages, Births and Deaths; Record of Courts, the Coroner, the Sheriff; Other Facts.

Another year has closed, and it has been a prosperous year for Dixon in nearly every sense. In fact, when one stops and looks in retrospect over the city's achievements in a material way there is little to regret and much to be thankful for. Dixon is steadily advancing and today we doubt if there is a city of its population which has better public improvements or is more attractive to the stranger or more loved by its people. Improvements could be made in the way of parks and doubtless will be made next year. A city hall is also the cherished wish of all.

One great lack in the records of the past year is the fact that no new factories have been added to our commercial interests. This is one great motive power of advancement and must be given attention next year.

As far as improvements of a public nature are concerned, this year has been a good one. Grouping the figures
the result is about as follows:

Four and one-half miles of cement
walks.

Sixteen blocks of macadam streets.
Thirty blocks of storm or sanitary sewers.

The above is work which has all been authorized by the city council and is in the nature of permanent public improvements, work which will not have to be done over and over again, as has been the case in the past with reference to board sidewalks.
The permanent walks of our city will remain a credit to the administration of Mayor Truman, who worked so hard to make people see their advantage and ultimate economy. In conversation with Mr. Truman he says that the records show that the city has expended $65,000 for board walks in the last 15 years. For this money there is nothing to show but a few rotting planks, a menace to life and limb holding out the constant possibility of heavy damage suits for the city to pay.

The past season was very wet so that work has been retarded, yet the result is very satisfactory, as sixteen blocks of beautiful macadam streets will testify. The good work will go on next year and possibly some more brick pavement will be laid.

Sewers Put In.

The thirty blocks of sewers put in this year are found upon the following streets:

On Hennepin avenue from Eighth
to Fifth, then to Peoria.

On Crawford from Fourth to Second,
then to Ottawa and to the river.

A storm sewer on Second from Dixon avenue to Crawford and connecting with the sewer that runs to the river.

Storm sewer on Central Place to Third street arch.

In North Dixon the sewer lines are:
Beginning at Bradshaw and running to the corner of North Crawford and Chamberlain, thence west to North Ottawa and thence to the river. This is storm and sanitary.

A sanitary sewer on Everett from Ottawa to North Galena.

Another on North Galena from the Illinois Central railway to the river.

One of the most necessary pieces of work done was the enclosing by a stone archway the ditch on Galena and Fifth streets which has always been an eye-sore and source of danger. The actual cost of this was nearly $2700, but contributions from property owners reduced the cost to the city to $2200.

Permanent Roads Built.

The macadam streets laid this season
are as follows: Five blocks on Madison avenue, one on Third, two on Fifth, one on North Dixon avenue,
four on Hennepin, one on First, one on Artesian and one on Crawford.

Year's Record of Fires.

While Dixon has been fortunate in regard to fires the past year the loss from this source has been nearly three times what it was in 1901, which was unusually light. The actual number of fires this year was just three more than last year, but the heavy loss in the Arnovitz & Co., fire on January 20, which amounted to $3,690.95, swelled the total amount of losses for the year to $6,288.84. In 1901 the total loss amounted to $2,504. In 1902 the department received 42 calls and there were eleven fires with losses where no calls were sent in. In 1902 there were 40 calls and 16 fires without calls where losses were reported.

A Word of Caution.

In this connection THE TELEGRAPH
would like to impress upon the public the danger in neglecting to call the fire department in case of a fire. It is right to use every effort to put out or check the fire yourself, but see that the department is called, for no one can tell when a fire may get beyond their control. The losses by fire this year where no call was sent to the department amounted to over $3000; one loss being $104. The Dixon fire department is very efficient in handling fires and chemicals are always used instead of water on small fires, thus minimizing the loss.

Work of Fire Department.

The work of the department has been conducted in a very systematic and economical manner and much credit is due Fire Chief George Detrick for this. Francis Coffey and Will James have also proven themselves very efficient and faithful in their service. There have been very few calls for the Volunteer Department
this year, but they have been alert and ready to respond. The running team of this department brought glory upon themselves and won honor for Dixon in August by winning the state championship hook and ladder
race at Blue Island.

Five hundred feet of new hose was purchased this year at a cost of $500
and the department now has 2000 feet of good hose, sufficient to meet almost any requirement. This hose has not cost the city anything, but has been purchased out of insurance company tax.

At the Public Library.

In 1901 there were 19,479 applications for books at the Dodge public library—in 1902 there were 21,074 issued by the librarian. These were apportioned during the months as follows:

January—2056
February—2006
March—2323
April—2035
May—1782
June—1494
July—1405
August—1299
September—1379
October—1674
November—1907
December—1711

Total—21,074

On Saturday, April 12, the largest number of books, 230, was issued. Only 4 were issued, however, on Wednesday, July 23. Cards to the number of 1343
were made out last year, there being 626 for 1902. During the year about 935 new books have been added to the library and several hundred have been rebound. There are over 5,000 books now in good condition for the benefit of the reading public and the privileges of the library are eagerly sought after. A record of the out-of-town visitors at the institution during the months of July, August, September and October was kept. There were 140 visitors and they had no adverse criticisms to offer. The library reading rooms have been open on Sunday afternoons, during November and December. Dixon citizens visited it as follows, for the nine Sundays just past,
the first number being children and the second adults: November 2, 21-10; 9, 13-20; 16, 3-9; 23, 17-13; 30, 15-20.
December 7, 10-13; 14, 6-6; 21, 12-10; 28,
12-5. Total 225.

Marriage Licenses.

During the past year County Clerk
Thompson made over five hundred hearts happy by granting marriage licenses. There were 291 of these documents issued and they were distributed among the months as follows:
January 27, February 27, March 19,
April 17, May 18, June 24, July 15,
August 15, September 24, October 21, November 29 and December 37. Thus it will be seen that June was the favored month for weddings has given place to December with its holiday associations and merry-making. This year shows a decrease in the number of licenses issued as in 1901 there were 283 granted, as against 221 in 1900 and 219 in 1899.

Lee County Deaths Number 216.

The physicians of Lee county are obliged to report all births and deaths which occur and are liable to a heavy fine for all they do not so report.
They receive a fee of 25 cents for each birth reported to the county clerk.
During the past year there have been 216 deaths in Lee county, not enumerating 24 still births. This loss in the population is made up by more than double the number of births.

BOY TRAVELER ENTERTAINS

Harry Steele Morrison at Y. M. C. A.
Last Night Tells of His Tramp Abroad.

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYED LECTURE

As Boy of 15 Started for Europe With $25 in His Pocket—Had Many Queer Experiences.

Harry Steele Morrison, known as the boy traveler, lectured at the Y.
M. C. A. rooms in this city last evening. He was greeted by a large crowd of men, young and old, who were highly entertained by his description of his travels in Europe when a boy of 15 years with no resource other than his ingenuity could devise.

Mr. Morrison is now but 19 years old, yet he has improved his time in travel and education as few others have done. This can be seen in his lecture. He has a good voice; his words are well chosen and his sentences smoothly constructed,
while his descriptions are delightfully fresh and original. He spoke as one of a maturer mind looking back upon the inexperience of youth; yet but a few years separate him from the amusing positions in which he depicted himself.

He began his story with the time he left Mattoon, Ill., as a boy of 14 and went to Chicago to secure a position as office boy. His boyish inexperience was very naturally told, as when after a year of office boy life he decided he would like to be a newspaper reporter
and applied at the various Chicago offices for a situation. He soon learned that if he was to write for the papers he must first find something worth writing about, so he struck high and decided to go to London and report the Queen's jubilee. He had $25 in his pocket, but was undaunted
by the smallness of his pile and set out. His subsequent experiences were novel and interesting and his very inexperience stood him well
in prompting him to attempt things which others would consider impossible. He went where only a boy, and one with his originality, could go.
Things which would discourage others
did not stop him and he secured audiences with President McKinley,
Gladstone, Queen Victoria, the Lord Mayor of London, the President of the Swiss Republic, President Faure of France and many other noted personages who seemed equally entertained
by the novel specimen of Young America. Of hardships he had many and his methods of paying his expenses gave him valuable experience.

No admittance was charged for the lecture, but a collection was taken and the social committee of the Association
made up the rest of the amount necessary to pay the lecturer. The Association took this as a means to interest the young men of the city and get them in the habit of enjoying the privileges of the rooms, where they are always welcome.

ILLINOIS LEADS.

Produced More Corn and More Oats Past Season Than Any Other State.

Illinois produced more bushels of corn and a larger yield of oats during the past season than any other state in the Union. Final returns to the statistician of the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C., from regular and special correspondents, supplemented by reports of special field agents, show that Illinois leads with a total of 372,436,416 bushels of corn raised in 1902. Illinois also gave the largest yield of oats, namely 153,450,423 bushels. Great is Illinois.

More About Mrs. Fremont.

Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont, whose death on Saturday night we announced last evening, was the daughter of Senator Thomas H. Benton of Missouri. As a child she left her home in St. Louis with her father and visited Washington, the scene later of social triumphs. One of her first acquaintances in the national capital was President Andrew Jackson, of whom she was a great favorite. She made her social debut when 13 years of age at a dinner President Van Buren gave for his son. The following year she was a bridesmaid at the marriage of the Russian minister, Bodoisco, "the Splendid." Mr. Buchanan, who later defeated her husband, General Fremont, for the presidency, was her groomsmen. The bride was given away by Henry Clay.

Mrs. Fremont was engaged on her biography when she died. She had enjoyed excellent health until last summer when she fell and broke a hip. Her health then steadily began to decline.

Betrayed by a Petticoat.

The Sterling Gazette states that Mrs. Martha Alexander of Rock Falls, had been missing things for some time among the rest a white lace-trimmed petticoat, Monday as Mrs. Florence Anderson was crossing the street she held up the skirt of her dress, disclosing to the eyes of Mrs. Alexander her own familiar article of underwear. The result was a search warrant and the recovery of the petticoat, together with a hat, a collarette, a calico pattern and several smaller articles.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

Suggestions to Patrons and Carriers From Headquarters.

A. W. Machen, general superintendent of the free rural mail service, sends the following notice to patrons and carriers:

The department looks to the patrons of the rural free delivery service, who are receiving the benefits of the service, to use their utmost personal endeavors, and also to exert their influence with the road supervisors, or with those officials who are responsible for the condition of the highways, to the end that the roads traveled by the rural carriers may always be kept open and in such passable shape that the service can be regularly and punctually performed.

Should the regularity of the service be needlessly destroyed as the result of inattention and lack of care bestowed on the highways, the permanent withdrawal of the delivery will very likely result.

Rural letter carriers are required to serve their routes regularly at all seasons of the year and in every kind of weather when it can be done without seriously imperiling their lives or endangering their conveyances or the U. S. mail which is in their custody.

Patrons should clear away the snow drifts, so that carriers can drive up to and reach boxes from their vehicles without dismounting.

It is not a part of the carrier's duty to break out the roads after severe snow storms.

Rural carriers are expected to energetically try to serve their routes even though the conditions may be extremely adverse, and any undue lack of zeal on their part should be promptly brought to the attention of this office for such action as the merits of the case require.

SEVENTEEN LOG SCHOOL HOUSES IN STATE.

There are 614 Children Between 6 and 21 Unable to Read and Write.

The recent report of State Superintendent of Schools Bayliss reveals some peculiar things. Among others is the fact that there are seventeen log school houses in Illinois. Last year the report showed twenty-two, but five have since been replaced with modern structures. In all there are 12,965 school houses in the State, 169 of which were built within the year. In these 27,186 teachers are required to govern and instruct 971,841 pupils.

The whole number of persons between the age of 6 and 21 years reported as unable to read and write was 614. The assigned causes of illiteracy were: Indigency of parents, 39; inaccessible schools, 25; neglect of parents, 184; ill health, weakness of mind, blindness, foreign birth and deafness 366.

Cost of High Schools.

The high schools, 350 in number, cost for maintenance $1,531,523.43. The whole number of pupils in them was 41,951 and 5,230 were graduated during the year. Of these 1,915 were boys and 3,415 were girls. The high schools employed 1,606 teachers and the pay roll amounted to $1,314,600.52

A Narrow Escape.

Sterling Standard:—LeRoy Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Powers of Prairieville had a very narrow escape from drowning in Rock River Monday morning. He and his father had been cutting ice south of Prairieville on the river and had loaded the wagon. LeRoy started to drive to shore when he got the team on thin ice and they broke through. The boy was thrown into the water with the struggling horses and was rescued with difficulty. The harness had to be cut to pieces to get the horses out and the wagon was taken from the river in small pieces. It took the hard work of six men over two hours to get everything out on the bank. LeRoy was taken to the home of Lee Book where he was cared for. He was not injured. The horses were badly cut but they will probably not take any harm from their involuntary bath in icy water.

PHONETIC SPELLING IS APPROVED

Demaree and His Hypnotized Romance May Be Happy Yet—
State News Notes.

Springfield, Ills., Dec. 31.—"Unionism is not and never shall invade the ranks of the Illinois State Teachers' association," is the unanimous and emphatic assertion of the most prominent educators of the state attending the annual meeting of the body. Daily papers in Chicago published stories to the effect that the rural teachers of the state were being inoculated with the union spirit by representatives of the Chicago Teachers' Federation, and that the major portion of the pedagogues are pleased with and really grasping for the actual unionizing of the entire working principles of the association. The foregoing is the reply.

Tha Wad Hav Ezy Spelling.

Probably the most significant act of the association was the adoption of resolutions favoring amelioration of spelling to conform with the simplified spelling as adopted by the National Education association. These resolutions were offered by Superintendent Collins, of Springfield, and were passed after a spirited debate.

Tracy Roasts the Schools.

F. N. Tracy, of Kankakee, president of the State Teachers' Federation, in opening the convention scored the public school system of Illinois, and declared it obsolete, loose, inadequate, inefficient and antiquated.

Fraternal League Officers.

Springfield, Ills., Dec. 31.—Members of the Illinois Fraternal League who have been in session for the past two days adjourned last evening after electing the following officers for the ensuing year: J. B. Abrams, of Taylorville, president; C. J. Bell, Springfield, secretary and treasurer. They were all re-elected, as was the old board of directors.

ROMANCE OF J. H. DEMAREE

Says His Wife Hypnotized Him So as to Get Him to Marry—Looks Like Reconciliation Now.

Greenville, Ills., Dec. 31.—John H. Demaree, the Greenville contractor who declares his pretty bride hypnotized him into marrying her, twice at tempted suicide. He first tried poisoning and next razor, and failed in both. Then he telegraphed his wife to come, and she arrived Monday night and was driven at once to the Demaree residence, where a long and private conference was held between husband and wife. Later Mrs. Demaree stated that she thought her husband would be all right in a few days. She was surprised to learn that he had made an attempt at suicide, and said that she did not want him sent to any asylum.

When asked for her version of Demaree's story that she had hypnotized him and inveigled him into wedlock, she said she had not talked to him about the matter, and consequently had no statement to make. Mrs. Demaree appeared cool and self-possessed. She is apparently mistress of the situation, and a reconciliation may be effected. Mrs. Demaree does not seem disturbed over the notoriety that has resulted from her marriage. She said that her husband is a trifle nervous.

Important Railway Project.

Carbondale, Ills., Dec. 31.—Incorporation papers have been filed in this county for the St. Louis and East Shore railroad, an entirely new system. The road will have for its northern terminus East St. Louis and from there run through St. Clair, Monroe and Randolph counties to Fort Gage, thence passing through Jackson, Williamson, Saline and Gallatin counties. It is expected that from this city a branch will run through Brookport, tapping the great southern Illinois coal fields and the great kaolin deposits of the south-east. Another branch is to run to Shawneetown.

Dunlap Trial Drags.

Alto, Ills., Dec. 31.—The Dunlap trial drags somewhat. The state is now trying to impeach testimony given for the defense and has put several witnesses on the stand to testify that things were not said differently from what was represented by the defense. Miss Dunlap shows the effects of her illness. Her lips are colorless, her face is pale and she shows interest only when Charles, her attorney, rises to object to the evidence presented by the state.

Went Out of Window Head First.

Danville, Ills., Dec. 31.—Mrs. Effie Young and Mrs. May Cook were cleaning clothing with gasoline in a second-story room when Mrs. Young stepped on a match. The oil fumes caught fire and flames filled the room. The women jumped headfirst out of a window. Mrs. Cook broke her right arm and shoulder. Mrs. Young is injured internally. Both were badly burned. The house was partly destroyed by fire.

End of a Series of Quarrels.

Peoria, Ills., Dec. 31.—A. P. Talbot, manager of the Central Union Telephone company's office at Delavan, near here, shot and seriously injured his wife, and killed himself yesterday. The affair is the culmination of a series of family quarrels. Jealousy is supposed to be the motive.

TWO STATUES FOR SCHWAB

Gerome Has the Models Completed and the Bronzes Will Embellish Schwab's New York Home.

Paris, Dec. 31.—Jean Leon Gerome, the sculptor, has just completed the models of two statues which were ordered by Charles M. Schwab for the decoration of his new house at New York. The models represent "Labor" and "Metallurgical Science." The first shows a robust workman vigorously handling a tool with which he is stirring molten metal. The second is represented by a female figure of the United States type, with an animated face stamped with energy and intense thought.

The figure is clad in antique drapery. Gerome says the statues were ordered by Schwab personally, and that he has tried to symbolize Schwab's entire life in the two figures. The workman is clad in trousers and shoes only. These garments, the sculptor said, were modeled after the clothing of a Pittsburgh workman furnished by Schwab. The statues will be cast in bronze and are to be more than life size.

SEQUEL OF A WOMAN'S SIN

She Takes Her Own Life After Revealing How Her Wifely Honor Was a Wreck.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 31.—Mrs. Minnie Bonawitz, a woman belonging to a prominent family in Marshalltown, committed suicide yesterday. Her act was the result of her sensational elopement last week with M. C. Dakin, a capitalist of State Center, and a note which she left makes still further surprising revelations. In this letter to her husband, A. L. Bonawitz, a wealthy horseman, she says that a bartender named Ritter, who was recently divorced, is the man she really loved. In the affair of last week Mrs. Bonawitz and Dakin were arrested at a hotel in Ames, where they were registered as man and wife. Her husband forgave her, because he thought it was her first offense. He is now prostrated by her suicide and the latest developments of the affair.

ICE HARVEST IN PROGRESS.

Sam Watson Putting Up 2,000 Tons for Nick Plein.

Ice on Rock River is now nine inches thick and the harvest of the ice men has begun. At noon yesterday Sam N. Watson put a force of men on the river near the water works to cut ice for Nick Plein's storage houses. Mr. Plein will put up 2,000 tons and employs union teamsters only in hauling the ice. It will take about a week to finish the harvest.

Mr. Watson recently purchased Van Arman's Island and consequently has the right to cut ice over an area of 300 acres on the river. Having this large area to work from he will dodge the poor ice and put up nothing but the best for the city service.

AGENT USED AGUN.

Shot Sterling Man in the Leg to Quiet His Tongue.

A shooting affray occurred at the Northwestern depot in this city Tuesday evening in which a Sterling and a Dixon man were concerned and the former went home with a surface wound on his leg from the ball of the Dixon man's revolver.

D. O. Brown, a sewing machine agent of this city, was the man who held the gun and says that the dispute arose out of a replevin suit over the sale of a sewing machine to F. N. Johnson of Sterling. He says Johnson got into the same train as he was returning from Sterling last evening and began to personally abuse him. His language was far from choice, says Brown, and he moved his seat several times to avoid the tirade. The brakeman finally interposed and tried to quiet Johnson, but without much avail. When the train reached Dixon Brown attempted to get away by getting off the opposite end of the car. Johnson started for him again and after warning him away Brown pulled a gun and shot Johnson in the leg to make him keep his distance. The wound was only slight and Johnson returned to Sterling satisfied for the time being. Brown was placed under arrest.

Johnson's Story.

F. N. Johnson, when interviewed this morning, stated that some weeks ago a sewing machine agent came to his home in Sterling while he was away and coaxed his wife to trade their old machine for a new one. She finally consented. She was to pay $35 and be allowed to trade in the old machine. When Johnson arrived home he did not like the bargain. He heard no more from the agent until Saturday when D. O. Brown called. Johnson said he wanted the old machine back, while Brown asked for what was due on the new one. They could not come to an agreement and Brown left. Yesterday the latter replevined the new machine on which Johnson said he has paid $20. In the evening he came up to Dixon on the same train with Brown to see his father. He had no dispute on the train with Brown, he claims, and was standing 15 feet away from the latter when shot, having just alighted from the train. Johnson told his story to Officer Ball and returned to Sterling shortly after midnight.

Case Continued.

Johnson came to Dixon this morning when the case was brought up before Justice Bartlett at 10 o'clock. The case was continued until January 9, Brown being placed under $750 bonds to appear at that time.

Johnson moved to Sterling from Dixon about a year ago. He is a carpenter by trade and while here was known as "the terrible Swede."

Mr. Brown has only been here two weeks and was not the agent who made the original bargain.

AMERICAN PRESS ASS'N.

STATE MAY FURNISH UNIFORMS.

Action Would Be Hailed With Joy by Co. G Officers.

The officers of Company G and other commands in the Illinois National Guard may in the future have their uniforms furnished to them by the state free of charge. Adjutant General Smith recommends that the state allow officers of the national guard $120 per annum as expense money to be used for the purchase of arms, text books, and clothing required in the discharge of their duties.

The officers of the national guard uniform themselves, and as many of them cannot afford to replace their clothing frequently, the Adjutant General says they do not always have the neatness of appearance that is desired and it would be unjust for the state to ensure these officers as would be done if clothing and equipment were furnished.

Among others, the following recommendations are made by the Adjutant General: New uniforms, belts, haversacks and canteens for the enlisted men and permanent improvements at Camp Lincoln, including cement floors and a sewerage system for the mess tents filling up of the swimming pool, which has claimed so many victims from the militia, and the erection of a permanent guard house.

DIXON ENGINEER IN WRECK.

Cyrus M. Helvey Injured at Battle Creek on Christmas Night.

Relatives in this city have received a letter from C. M. Helvey, who left Dixon a year or more ago and is an engineer on the Grand Trunk railway. He resides at Battle Creek, Mich. Omitting other parts of the communication he describes a wreck on the road as follows:

I will send you a Battle Creek paper giving a full account of wreck which occurred Christmas night in which an engineer and fireman lost their lives, which made a very unhappy Christmas in two homes. As for myself and the head-end collision I had Christmas eve I am very thankful that I got out alive. I had an order giving me right of track over the local, Vicksburg to Casapolis. An order was afterwards put out at Penn, the first station east of Casapolis, that extra west, engine 907, should wait at Penn until 4:15 p. m. for No. 76, engine 1085. (No. 76. Engine 1085 was the local.) But the order was not given to me, and I knew nothing of them being at Penn. It was snowing and blowing fearfully and I found them out on the main line and no flag out to protect their train. When I first saw them I was about twenty-five car lengths from them and running about thirty-five miles per hour. I shouted to my fireman to jump for his life, at the same time setting my air at emergency and shutting off my throttle. Then I jumped out of cab window. When I struck the ground I hear the crash and after I got through rolling and bouncing, I got up to see both engines and nine cars a total wreck. My fireman was shaken up pretty bad and I had my left thumb dislocated and right shoulder pretty badly sprained and shook up in general. Engine 1085 is a standard eight-wheeled engine and engine 907 is one of the large mogul engines, so it was like a big dog jumping on a little one. We have had five wrecks within as many days. The conductor of the local has resigned and the engineer might just as well. Well, I don't suppose you care anything about reading about these wrecks. * * *

Year With the Coroner.

Fourteen citizens of Lee county met unnatural deaths during the past year, but only one of these was a suicide; five of the deaths were the result of railway accidents but not through fault of the corporations. Altogether it has been a fairly busy year for Coroner C. T. Smith.

The first jury was called on January 13. John Lane of Pawpaw by excessive use of alcohol and opiates had concluded to die, and the jury found accordingly.

January 30, Dave Conderman and Fitz Dennman were struck and killed by the Northwestern cars near Dixon.

On April 1, Jacob Solomon, supposed under liquor, managed to upset his load of oak posts and when found by the roadside his body had been crushed beneath the heavy timbers. The accident happened near Compton.

The 12th of April a heavy wind prevailed, so severe as to blow William E. Miller from the top of a freight car, while the train was in motion north of Dixon, killing him.

Dietrick Scadde of Amboy, an old man of 70 years, was struck by a Central engine and killed April 9.

Unknown reasons were ascribed to the death of Delos Perry McKinney of Dixon, who was found dead in his bed on May 16.

Frank Howard, a college cadet, had been attending a target practice and subsequently endeavored to swim the river on May 29. He was drowned.

Dorsey Scott of Sublette on June 10 died from heart trouble.

July 18 William Carpenter of Bradley station, south of Pawpaw, died from paralysis.

The only year's inquest on the body of a woman was on July 25; Alma Connelly of Dixon was poisoned, a gastric trouble, from eating ice cream.

The only suicide was on August 20

When Joseph Clark did the act with a shot gun, in South Dixon.

A second drowning was on August 25 in Rock River at Dixon, Patrick Daley.

The final coroner's act was on September 25 when Charles H. Oates was struck by a Northwestern engine, near the west tower.

While Lee county has had fourteen inquests Whiteside has had twenty-eight. Lee had one woman, they had three. The most of Lee's were accidents, theirs criminal.

Dixon Increasingly Healthy.

The books of Wm. J. Barry, superintendent of Oakwood cemetery in this city, show that there has been 118 interments in the cemetery in the year just closed, to-wit: In January 12, February 16, March 9, April 8, May 7, June 8, July 4, August 10, September 13, October 12, November 11, and December 8.

This is 9 less interments than in 1901, and more than 20 less than in 1900. Mr. Barry says that notwithstanding the continuously increasing population of the city and surrounding country, the mortality has not only relatively, but actually decreased in numbers, for the last five or six years. This, perhaps, indicates two things: The increasing healthfulness of the locality on account of improved sewerage; and the more perfect control of disease by our physicians through improved methods of treatment. The fact is a pleasing one to record, and shows that Dixon has not only beauty, but remarkable healthfulness of location to offer to all those who settle within her borders.

Births 517.

There were 1000 parents in the various townships of the county who were made happy in 1902 through the arrival of 515 little strangers at their homes. Of these parents a number were made doubly happy for there five pairs of twins. Three of these double blessings occurred at Dixon, one pair, a boy and girl, at Paw Paw and one, boy and girl, in Palmyra. Two of the Dixon pair made up a girl quartet. The first pair born during the year were Harry DeLos Kanzler and Harold Carlos Kanzler of Dixon.

In the Circuit Clerk's Office.

This year the number of instruments of record filed with Recorder I. W. Lewis was 3,436. In 1901 there were 3147, in 1900, 3889 and in 1899, 3071.

In the circuit court the Criminal suits for the year were:

Getting Rich on $300 a Year.

Periodically there are foisted upon the patient public various schemes for cheap living. These usually come from well fed college professors, who, however, rarely put their gastronomic theories into practice unless compelled to do so by dyspepsia. It is quite natural, therefore, that the latest proposition of this character should come from a Chicago professor, one J. S. Clark of the Northwestern university. His contention is that on a yearly salary of $300 an unskilled American laborer can and should support a family in comfort and save money. This he declares to be the plain duty of every workingman. How rich he would become after a series of years spent in the enjoyment of scant food and plenty of work the professor fails to state. It may fairly be assumed that Professor Clark has not seen fit to prove this particular faith by his works. It is usually the well fed man who thus discourses on the sweet uses of adversity to his less fortunate brethren.

Professor Clark might have gone even further than he did. Our good old friend, Becky Sharp and Colonel Mulberry Sellers, long since fathomed the secret of living on nothing a year, and only lately an eminent Boston economist, Edward Atkinson, proved that, given a model kitchen and no appetite, household expenses become a negligible quantity.

Seriously, the exploitation of these theories of cheap living, like the many "get rich quick" schemes, is neither prudent or profitable. The theorists of Professor Clark's stripe are, unconsciously perhaps, disturbers of domestic peace. If they were to put their theories into practice, we should hear less of academic deliverances which either provoke ridicule or stir up social discontent.
